FORWARD

HOW REAL THE EVENTS OF SCHOOL DAYS ARE TO US NOW. EVERY SENIOR CLASS, IT SEEMS, IS FILLED WITH A DESIRE TO DO SOMETHING NEW; SOMETHING WHICH WILL GO DOWN TO POSTERITY IN THE HISTORY OF THEIR SCHOOL.

IN MAKING THIS LAST RECORD OF OUR SCHOOL DAYS, WE HAVE TRIED TO PORTRAY THE LIFE OF OUR SCHOOL IN PICTURES. JUST AS FAMILIES KEEP THEIR HISTORIES IN ALBUMS.

WE, THE SENIORS, ALL HOPE THAT THIS OBJECT OF INTENSE AND HARD WORK, WILL BE ENJOYED BY EVERYONE AND THAT THE CLASSES TO COME WILL CARRY IT ON.

THESE ARE THE TERMS OF THE CONTRACT MADE BY THE SIGNED PARTIES, AND IT IS HEREBY CERTIFIED
THAT THE SAME HAVE BEEN READ AND UNDERSTOOD AND THAT THE PARTIES HAVE SIGNED THEM VOLUNTARILY AND WITHOUT COERCION.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, THE PARTIES HAVE SIGNED
THEIR NAMES AT THE CITY OF NEW YORK, THIS THIRTEENTH DAY OF JANUARY, A.D. 1901.

SIGNED, SEALD AND DELIVERED IN PRESENCE OF US, THE NOTARY PUBLIC, AND TWO CREDITABLE WITNESSES, THE PARTIES HAVE SIGNED AND SEALD THE FOREGOING INSTRUMENT.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1942 dedicate this issue of the Beaverian to Mrs. Mary Pitcher Lewis, in appreciation of the untiring effort and unusual understanding she has shown us during our past four years. She has been an active member of the Board of Education for more than fifteen years and has generously given aid to us as we have progressed through school.

On November 18, 1941, the Senior Play, "Misful Mr. Bobbs", was presented at the Community Hall. The play's success was due to the competent direction of Mrs. Carnie. The town and surrounding vicinity greatly favored us by making a full house. Calvin Farney's continual out-breaks helped to set the audience in a hilarious state. In all, the play was very successful.

HISTORY

Important happenings within a country and outside a country go down in history. ~~There~~ we have a history of our country. We, the Seniors of the class of 1939, as we look back over our years of high school, find that we have made a history—not a history which will be written for a textbook, but a history which we as Seniors will always remember. At the same time, the past has left us a history. Many things have happened since we entered as a timid group of Freshmen students.

In 1938 a group of Junior High students from many different schools joined our class and had all attended Beaver Falls High School. Since our number was large, the girls and boys were put in the separate rooms. At our first class meeting we elected the following officers: President, Beverly Lehman; Vice President, Warren Manning; Secretary, Grace Mathys; Treasurer, Bernard Ritz; Class Reporter, Geraldine Bantz. Our class advisor was Mr. Hirt. During the school year our class saw the movie "The Prince and the Pauper." We wound up the events of our Freshman year with a picnic at Chas's Lake. We said farewell until the following year.

When we again returned in September, 1939, some of our classmates had dropped out. We now felt we were above the Freshmen and were a part of high school. We elected our officers who were the following: President, Warren Manning; Vice President, Beverly Lehman; Treasurer, Julia D'Ambros; Secretary, Geraldine Bantz; and Reporter, Rita Farney. We chose Miss Barnett as our class advisor. We regretted when we learned Paula R. had been married and would not be with us for a long time. In a hall full of happy Sophomores we went to see the movie, "The Sign of the Cross." To wind up the events of 1939 we went on a picnic to Lake Erie. We said goodbye to teachers and classmates until next September rolled along.

In 1940 the Junior Class had been reduced to about half. The girls gathered in Room 22 as their room and the boys in Room 23. We now felt we were a part of high school. The first class meeting resulted in the following elections: President, Geraldine Bantz; Vice President, Calvin Farney; Secretary, Anna Hoch, Jr.; Treasurer, Beverly Lehman; Student Council Representative, Beverly O'Brien, and

BEAVERIAN

We, the class of 1942, being of sound mind and of a sane mind, do hereby, will and agree to the following possessions:

To the Junior Class we leave our determination to succeed.

To the Sophomore Class we leave our dignified manner.

To the Freshman Class we leave our excess ambition to aid them in completing four years of school.

We leave to:

Leslie Gentry - Fred Meyer's quiet and peaceful nature.

Patricia Kell - Some of Virgil Burch's height to aid him in being "high up as the rest."

Paula Staley - Paul Martin's ability to shorten long English sentences by condensing the class's attention.

Everett Miller - Fred Neurg's talent to give her a chance to catch her breath after a spell of high pitched soprano.

Grace Mathys's well-played parts in the Junior and Senior Plays.

Julia D'Ast - Her inexhaustible energy. She is the first student to popularity.

June Lyndaker's love for shorthand.

Calvin Farny's distinct ability to give a "mouth full" of soundly wise opinions.

Geraldine Bantz's versatility.

Beverly O'Brien's musical talent.

Geraldine Bantz's dancing ability.

Maalie Herzig's New England experiences and "old time" jokes.

Dorothy Swanson's artistic ability.

Shirley Young's calm, collected nature concerning school.

Harlan Farny's advice. "Be careful sometimes especially when you are in the leading part in a play."

BEACON

Betty Scoville-Baulch R. 1's "afraid to say" nature.
 Harold Lanning-Adin Hoch's way "with the gals."
 Doris Lanning's fear of report cards.
 Howard Peter's love for road. He played with his giggle.
 Junior Gray-Lorraine L. 1's love. "It's easy to avoid plenty explanations with a short reply, I don't know; or simpler yet, just nod of the head."
 Jean Scoville-Barbara Zehr's "everready" smiles.
 Harold Lanning-Edward Lindaker's love for agriculture.
 Earl Yousey-ella Zehr's serious school attitude and ability to get her work done.
 Gladys Smith-Bernard Ritz's ability to get things done the shortest way - the short-hand way.
 Doris Lanning-Lana Lindaker's favorite habit of sitting down with a book rather than her "read history or English."
 Betty Kelly-Viola Peter's "I'd to see you" trait.
 Jean Scoville-Rita Farnes's sense of humor.
 Louis Lanning-Beverly Lanning's red hair and secret rich ability.

To the Senior Advisor of L.S.S.: We sincerely thank Mrs. Corne for the great patience she has shown and for her continued efforts toward making our year a success.

To Mr. Corbell, the Principal: We have our most sincere thanks for the interest that he has shown for our class to make this year a success.

Signed:

The Student Council is the student governing body of the Beaver Falls High School. There are two representatives from each class except the 7th and 8th grades. This year we sold magazines and pennants to raise money, and with this money we purchased records for dancing. We published a hand book of the curriculum and activities of the school. This organization gives the students an opportunity to express their viewpoints.
